

Alleycat Music Studio Photo Release

Student Photos

Occasionally, such as at Group Lessons and Studio Recitals, photos and/or videos of students may be taken. This Photo Release gives Alleycat Music Studio permission to publish these photos on www.alleycatmusic.org, in printed materials, and/or in other materials that are used solely for the purpose of sharing Studio information with current and/or prospective students and their families, with the understanding that once images are published, they are considered to be in the public domain . These images will not be used for marketing or sales purposes without your express consent.

In order to protect the privacy of students and their families, Alleycat Music Studio will use the following guidelines when publishing images:

1. The student's name will not be published with the image. At most, a first initial will be used when necessary.
2. Every effort will be made to avoid publishing potential identifiers of the location of the student (such as city and/or business names and/or addresses).

I understand the Alleycat Music Studio Photo Release and give permission for my student's image to be used in the ways specified above.
